2015 LINGUISTIC SUMMER INSTITUTE

LINGUISTIC THEORY IN A WORLD OF BIG DATA

uchicago

JULY 6 - 31, 2015
UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

4-WEEK COURSES

A Linguistic History of the Western Steppe: Indo-European, its sisters, and its neighbors
Johanna Nichols (University of California, Berkeley)

American Dialectology
Joseph Salmons (University of Wisconsin) sponsored by the ADS

Archival Resources and How to Prepare Your Data for Preservation and Sharing
Malcah Yaeger-Dror (University of Arizona)

Articulatory Phonetics
Paul Cook (University of California, Berkeley)

Computational Approaches to Sound Change
James Kirby (University of Edinburgh) and Morgan Sonderegger (McGill University)

Computational Corpus Lexicography
Paul Cook (University of New Brunswick) and Edward Finegan (University of Southern California) sponsored by the DSN

Computational Phonology
Jeff Heinz (University of Delaware) and Jason Riggie (University of Chicago)

Experimental Pragmatics
Gregory Ward and William S. Horton (Northwestern University)

Experimental Syntax
Philip Hofmeister (University of Essex)

Field Methods (Section 1)
Anthony Woodbury (University of Texas Austin)

Field Methods (Section 2)
Lenore Grenoble (University of Chicago)

Gradient Symbolic Computation
Paul Smolensky (Johns Hopkins University) and Matt Goldrick (Northwestern University)

Intonational Phonology and Prosodic Typology
Sun-Ah Jun (University of California, Los Angeles)

Introduction to Bilingualism
Virginia Yip (Chinese University of Hong Kong) and Ping Li (Penn State University)

Introduction to Computational Linguistics
Sharon Goldwater (University of Edinburgh)

Introduction to Discourse Analysis
Barbara Johnstone (Carnegie Mellon University)

Introduction to Historical Linguistics
Martha Ratliff (Wayne State University)

Introduction to Language Acquisition
Jeff Lidz (University of Maryland)

Introduction to Language Disorders
Patrick C. M. Wong (Chinese University of Hong Kong)

Introduction to Language Typology
Martin Haspelmath (Max Planck Institute for Evolutionary Anthropology) and Holger Diessel (University of Jena)

Introduction to Morphophonology
Sharon Inkelas (University of California, Berkeley)

Introduction to Morphosyntax
Vera Gribanova (Stanford University)

Introduction to Phonological Theory and Analysis
Eric Baković (University of California, San Diego)

Introduction to Pragmatics
Craig Roberts (The Ohio State University)

Introduction to Semantics
Chris Kennedy (University of Chicago)

Introduction to Sociolinguistics
Penelope Eckert (Stanford University)

Introduction to Syntax
David Pesetsky (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

Language and Law
Lawrence M. Solan (Brooklyn Law School)

Language Contact
Pattie Epps (University of Texas at Austin)

Language in Culture
Michael Silverstein (University of Chicago)

Language, Gender and Sexuality
Rusty Barrett (University of Kentucky)

Language Variation and Thought
John Lucy (University of Chicago)

Lexical Semantics
John Beavers (University of Texas at Austin)

Lexicalist Approaches to Syntax
Stephen Wechsler (University of Texas at Austin)

Pidgins and Creoles
Enoch Aboh (University of Amsterdam)

Second Language Acquisition
Silvina Montrul and Tania Ionin (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

Sentence Processing
Lyn Frazier (University of Massachusetts Amherst)

Sociophonetics
Lauren Hall-Lew (University of Edinburgh) and Jennifer Nycz (Georgetown University)

Syntax-Phonology Interface
Caroline Fery (Goethe-Universität Frankfurt)

The Evolution of Language from an Ecological Perspective
Salikoko Mufwene (University of Chicago)

The Structure of the Athabaskan Verb
Keren Rice (University of Toronto)

Topics in Algonquian Morphology and Syntax
Monica Macaulay (University of Wisconsin) and Amy Dahlstrom (University of Chicago)

Topics in Bantu Syntax
Jeff Good (University at Buffalo) and Brent Henderson (University of Florida)

Variationist Sociolinguistics
Sali Tagliamonte (University of Toronto)

2-WEEK COURSES

A Program for Evolutionary Syntax: Syntactic Reconstruction and Syntactic Fossils
Ljiljana Progovac (Wayne State University)

Advanced Probabilistic Modeling in R
Roger Levy (University of California, San Diego)

Advances in Contact-induced Morphological Change
Francesco Gardani (Vienna University of Economics and Business)

Amazonian languages: Major families, linguistic areas, and grammatical topics
Lev Michael (University of California, Berkeley)

Analyzing Time Series Data Using Generalized Additive Modeling
Jacolien van Rij (University of Tuebingen) and Martijn Wieling (University of Groningen)

Approaches to Morphosemantics
Andrew Koontz-Garboden (University of Manchester)

Articulatory Phonology
Khalil Iskarous (University of Southern California)

Cognitive, Neurological, Formal and Genetic Foundations of Language Universals
Tom Bever (University of Arizona)

Computational Learning of Syntax
Alex Clark (King's College London) sponsored by the NAACL

Computational Minimalism
Greg Koberle (University of Chicago)

Computational Psycholinguistics
Roger Levy (University of California, San Diego) and Clinton Bicknell (Northwestern University)

Construction Grammar
Adele Goldberg (Princeton University)

Contrast
Darya Kavitskaya (University of California, Berkeley)

Continuations and Natural Language
Chris Barker (New York University)

Corpus Phonology
Kevin Ryan (Harvard University)

Data-driven Computational Pragmatics
Shlomo Argamon and Jonathan Dunn (Illinois Institute of Technology)

Empirical Applications of Type-Logical Categorical Grammar
Yusuke Kubota and Robert Levine (The Ohio State University)

Event Encoding in a Crosslinguistic Perspective
Beth Levin (Stanford University)

From Input to Production through Perception: Making the most of extant data in early language acquisition research
Amanda Seidl (Purdue University) and Alex Cristia (Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique)

Introduction to Statistics with R
Stefan Th. Gries (University of California, Santa Barbara)

Language and the Body
Susan Goldin-Meadow and Daniel Casasanto (University of Chicago)

Language in the Media
Jane Stuart-Smith (University of Glasgow)

Language Variation through the Lens of Web Data
Sravana Reddy (Dartmouth College)

Linguistic Applications of Mereology
Lucas Champollion (New York University)

Linguistics as a Forensic Science
Carole Chaski (Institute for Linguistic Evidence)

Metrics
Lev Blumenfeld (Carleton University)

Neuroscience of Language
Ellen Lau (University of Maryland)

Passives in Distributed Morphology
Heidi Harley (University of Arizona)

Perceptual Dialectology: What have we learned? What's to be done?
Dennis Preston (University of Oklahoma)

Probabilistic Pragmatics
Judith Degen and Dan Lassiter (Stanford University)

Processing Discourse Coherence
Hannah Rohde (University of Edinburgh)

Silent syntax? Experimental Investigations of Ellipsis
Ming Xiang (University of Chicago)

Semantic Fieldwork
Judith Tonhauser (The Ohio State University)

Semantic Variation in Nominal Expressions
Amy Rose Deal (University of California, Santa Cruz)

Sign Linguistics
Diane Brentari (University of Chicago)

Speakers and Listeners in Sound Change
Andries Coetzee (University of Michigan)

Speech Technologies
Karen Livescu (Toyota Technological Institute at Chicago)

The Computational Theory of the Error-driven Ranking Model of the Acquisition of Phonotactics
Giorgio Magri (Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique)

The Data Gold Rush: Exploiting freely available web data for linguistic research
Andy Wedel (University of Arizona) and Bodo Winter (UC Merced)

The Dynamics of Speech Perception
Pam Beddor (University of Michigan)

The Psycholinguistics of Grammar
Colin Phillips (University of Maryland)

The Syntax and Semantics of Discourse-Oriented Features: The grammar of speaker and addressee
Miok Pak (George Washington University), Paul Portner (Georgetown University), and Raffaella Zanuttini (Yale University)

The Relationship between Social Meaning and Formal Semantics/Pragmatics
Elizabeth Allyn Smith (Université de Québec à Montréal)

The Structure of Cantonese
Stephen Matthews (Hong Kong University)

The Structure of Hittite
Petra Goedegebuure (University of Chicago)

The Structure of Jiwari
Peter Austin (School of Oriental and African Studies)

The Structure of Kalaallisut
Jerry Sadock (University of Chicago)

The Structure of Karuk
Andrew Garrett and Line Mikkelsen (University of California, Berkeley)

The Structure of Lak
Victor Friedman (University of Chicago)

The Structure of Swahili
Fidele Mpiranya (University of Chicago)

Theoretical Approaches to Contact-induced Change
Donald Winford (The Ohio State University)

Topics in Austronesian Syntax
Edith Aldridge (University of Washington)

Topics in Balkan Linguistics
Victor Friedman (University of Chicago) and Brian Joseph (The Ohio State University)

Topics in Bilingualism
Kay Gonzalez (University of Illinois, Chicago)

Topics in Brazilian Portuguese Phonology and Morphology
Andrew Nevins (University College London)

Topics in Chinese Syntax
Lisa Lai-Shen Cheng (Leiden University)

Topics in Creole Linguistics
Michel DeGraff (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

Topics in Historical Linguistics
Ashwini Deo (Yale University)

Topics in Romance Linguistics
Luis Lopez (University of Illinois, Chicago)

Topics in South Asian Linguistics
Rajesh Bhatt (University of Massachusetts Amherst)

Topics in Syntax and Semantics of Slavic
David Pesetsky (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) and Sergei Tatevosov (Lomonosov Moscow State University)

Unsupervised Learning of Linguistic Structure: Morphology
John Goldsmith (University of Chicago)

Verb-initiality
Maria Polinsky (Harvard University)

Word Prosody
Larry Hyman (University of California, Berkeley)
