

Building Capacity in Linguistics and Endangered Languages at Tribal Colleges and Universities

Goals & Objectives

the endangered language
fund

Goals & Objectives

To assist with:

- building the research capacity of tribal colleges and universities (TCUs)
- broadening participation by Native Americans and Alaska Natives in the language sciences
- learning from TCUs how linguists can support their language research and revitalization goals.
- training linguistics graduate students in best practices in ethical tribal-academic partnerships

- To pilot strategies to increase the integration of linguistics into TCU curricula,

- to increase professional development and other resources for TCU faculty in linguistics,

- to foster collaborations between TCU and research university faculty that build capacity at TCUs, ideally to generalize strategies that can be adopted by other social sciences.

A Karuk Linguist Story

