I intend to apply for a fellowship to the LSA’s 2019 Linguistic Institute at the University of California, Davis and hereby request a waiver of LSA student membership dues because of extreme financial hardship such as, or similar to, that described below. The LSA acknowledges that virtually every student has financial need, but this waiver is intended for those in especially reduced circumstances. Examples of extreme financial hardship include:

- Recipient of a grant, scholarship, loan, or other program earmarked for applicants with extreme financial need (Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, Academic Competitiveness Grant, Sallie Mae Fund, American Dream Scholarship, Unmet Needs Scholarship, Asian & Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund, Federal Perkins Loan, etc.)
- Permanently disabled
- On active duty in the U.S. military, Peace Corps, or similar volunteer service
- Reside in countries with World Bank-designated income classification such as “low-income”
- ##### Affected by a disaster
- ##### On unpaid maternity or parental leave for a period of 1-5 years
- ##### Entitled to U.S. Social Security disability benefits or the equivalent.

If you are requesting a membership dues waiver due to circumstances other than the ones listed above or similar, please state the nature of your extreme financial need below.

Please send this form by postal mail to Linguistic Society of America, 522 21st St NW, Suite 120, Washington, DC 20006 USA; fax to 202-835-1717, or email to lsa@lsadc.org as a .pdf attachment. LSA staff will activate your membership, after which you will be able to log in to the LSA website and apply for an Institute fellowship.
