Registration

Members are reminded that registration fees can be kept low only if everyone who attends the meeting is registered. All those presenting papers are required to register.

Advance Registration:

Only members may register in advance. Members planning to attend may preregister when they renew their membership for 2002 or by sending the preregistration tearout (see center insert) or a photocopy with a check for registration by 3 December 2001. The Secretariat strongly urges you to preregister by 3 December but will, in any case, stop accepting preregistrations on 21 December. This step has been necessitated by the enormous flow of preregistrations received the last few days before the meeting. Preregistration fees for the 2002 Annual Meeting are:

- Regular Members: $60.00
- Student Members: $25.00
- Unemployed Members: $25.00

All preregistrations received after 21 December will be returned following the meeting, and individuals will have to register at the meeting. Preregistrants may claim badges and handbooks at the registration desk in the meeting area of the hotel beginning late in the afternoon of 3 January.

Requests for refunds of preregistration fees will not be honored. Registrants who are unable to attend the meeting will, however, be sent a Meeting Handbook in late January.

On-Site Registration:

Registration will open at noon on 3 January and will be open all day 4 and 5 January. The registration fees for the 2002 Annual Meeting are:

- Regular: $70.00
- Students: $30.00
- Unemployed Members: $30.00

Note: Fees may be paid with cash, check, or traveler's cheque. Credit card payments will NOT be accepted for on-site registration under any circumstances.

LSA Meeting Services

Child Care:

As in the past, members who notify the Secretariat that they plan to bring children to the meeting will receive a list of sitters recommended by the hotel and convention bureau as well as the names and addresses of the other members who expect to bring their children to Washington. In addition, at the recommendation of hotel staff, the hotel will be able to arrange babysitters if requested in advance. of the Officers and Executive Committee, the Child Care Assistance Fund will provide a maximum $100.00 stipend to offset child care costs. Parents must meet the following requirements: (1) They are presenters on the LSA program. (2) The caregiver they secure is a graduate student or unemployed linguist. (This person will also receive a complimentary Annual Meeting registration.) (3) The caregiver has agreed to provide child care for no more than two children for 8-12 hours. (4) The parents notify the Secretariat of their plans no later than 1 November 2001.

Job Placement:

A Job Placement Center will be available as in the past. The fee for listing one or more jobs in the Job Openings List and/or for scheduling interviews is $125. Instructions for remitting the fee will be sent to department and program chairs in mid October. As in the past, interviewers and candidates are required to register for the meeting.

Publishers’ Exhibit:

Details will appear in the October LSA Bulletin.

Sign Interpreting Policy:

Hearing impaired members who plan to attend the San Francisco meeting and need sign interpreting service must notify the Secretariat AND register for the meeting by 1 November 2001. The request for sign interpreting should include a list of the LSA sessions and/or papers they plan to attend. The Secretariat will then, with the assistance of the Local Arrangements Committee and the Registry of Interpreters, secure the services of appropriate interpreters. We have budgeted up to $1,200 per LSA member requesting sign interpreting. In addition, upon request, the LSA will arrange for sign interpreting services at the business meeting and presidential address. Finally, signed presentations will be interpreted if requested by 1 November 2001.

LANGUAGE Online

At no additional cost, LSA members will be able to access Language Volume 77 (2001) on the web through Project MUSE.

To take advantage of this benefit, please follow the instructions below:

1. Go to Language at Project MUSE at: http://muse.jhu.edu/journals/lan/

2. Select the volume and issue you wish to read. March 2001 should be available by mid-June. A table of contents should appear.

3. Click on the article you would like to read. If your library does not subscribe to Project MUSE, another web page will pop up telling you that your IP number does not appear to be subscribed. Enter the following user name and password:

4. MUSE user name: LSA1

5. Password: jun56

6. Click on the login button to proceed. This should take you directly to the article you clicked on in #3 above.

You should be able to access any Language articles, abstracts, etc. that are available. You only have to logon once per browser session. If you experience any difficulties with this user name, this password, or these instructions, please contact: muse@muse.jhu.edu.

The password may change periodically; when this occurs, Project MUSE will provide members with new instructions to access Language.

Slate of Candidates for 2002

At its January 2001 meeting, the Executive Committee nominated Sally McConnell-Ginet (Cornell U) to serve as Secretary-Treasurer and Brian Joseph (OH SU) to serve as Editor. The Nominating Committee (Alice Harris, chair; Joseph Aoun; Mary Beckman; Bill Davies; Manfred Krifka; and Beth Levin) submits the following slate of members to stand for election in August 2001: Vice President/President-Elect: Ray Jackendoff (Brandeis U); for Executive Committee: Stephen Anderson (Yale U); Eve Clark (Stanford U); Donca Farkas (UCLA); and Joan Maling (Brandeis U).

If ten or more members separately and in writing nominate any additional personal members for any position by 1 August 2001, that name will be added to the mail ballots submitted to the members. Nominations should be sent to: Nominating Cte, LSA, 1325 18th St, NW, Ste 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.

2002 Annual Meeting Call for Participation

LSA

The deadline for abstracts for all presentations at the Annual Meeting at the Hyatt Regency San Francisco, 3-6 January 2002, is 4 September 2001, 5:00 PM EDT. Submissions should be addressed to: LSA Secretariat, 1325 18th St, NW, Ste 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.

Members are advised that post office delivery, INCLUDING EXPRESS MAIL AND PRIORITY MAIL, is erratic. Abstracts received after the deadline will not be considered and will be returned to the authors. Strict enforcement of this deadline is necessary.

The privilege of offering papers for presentation at the LSA Annual Meeting is open to all members of the Society. Members may submit papers in three categories: (1) anonymously reviewed 15-minute papers, (2) anonymously reviewed 30-minute papers, and (3) anonymously reviewed poster sessions in any subarea. (The deadline for proposals for organized sessions has passed.)

Please note the policy regarding audiovisual equipment (outlined in 'Nota Bene', p. 10). The guidelines and abstract specifications may be found with the submission form for 15- and 30-minute papers and poster sessions as inserts in this bulletin. The guidelines for abstract preparation must be rigorously adhered to for the abstracts to be considered by the Program Committee.

Linguistics, Language, and the Public Interest Award

The Linguistics, Language, and the Public Interest Award recognizes efforts to foster awareness and understanding of linguistics and language beyond the usual disciplinary confines. Beginning in 1997, and continuing in odd-numbered years thereafter, the Linguistic Society of America honors the award a work that effectively increases public awareness and understanding of linguistics and language. Works in any medium are eligible, for example, books, documentary films, articles in popular magazines, software, or lecture series. Previous winners are:

- 2001: Geoffrey Nunberg, for his broadcasts on language for the radio program "Fresh Air" on National Public Radio

In order to be considered, the work must have been published, presented, or aired in the four years immediately preceding the deadline for the receipt of entries. For the 2003 competition, works made public between 16 December 1999 and 15 December 2001 will be considered. Entries for the 2003 award must be received no later than 1 April 2002. Note that, because a work is eligible for four years and the award is biennial, a work could be considered in two award cycles. Submissions or nominations must include the work (book, videotape, transcript, other recording, etc.) and evidence of its impact. Four copies of all materials are required. Presentation of the award will take place at the January 2003 Annual Meeting of the Society in Atlanta, GA. The awardee will be invited to attend and to present the work to the LSA members.

Questions and materials should be directed to: Linguistics, Language, and the Public Interest Award, c/o Linguistic Society of America, 1325 18th St., NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501; (202) 835-1714; (fax) (202) 835-1717; lsadc.org.

Annual Meeting: How Are We Doing?

We are grateful to the 64 LSA members who responded to the Annual Meeting questionnaire by the 15 April deadline (see March 2001 LSA Bulletin). All of their comments and suggestions have been forwarded to the Program Committee for consideration in planning future meetings. A summary of the responses follows.

Program Strengths

- the only regular venue for all of linguistics
- coverage of all major areas of linguistics
- plenary sessions
- COSWL sessions
- reasonable hotel rates
- affiliation with ADS, NAAHoLS, and SPCL

Program Weaknesses

- program not open to alternative theories
- conventional, unimaginative, and poorly presented papers
- too many 15-minute papers

Program Suggestions

- 20-25 minute papers instead of 15-minute papers
- more presentations in cognitive linguistics, discourse analysis, phonetics, psycholinguistics, historical linguistics, sociolinguistics, and computational linguistics
- better organization of papers by topics
- no conflicting phonetics and phonology sessions
- no special sessions during the President’s reception
- no evening sessions
- longer hours for the poster session and the book exhibit
- add another day to the meeting

Session Suggestions

- more handouts,
- speakers stay strictly on schedule

Seventy-five percent of respondents were satisfied with the annual meeting dates, but others suggested moving the dates closer to New Year’s, to the summer, or to the same time as MLA.

NOTE: The March 2001 LSA Bulletin also carried a ballot for members to use in voting on a sign language resolution passed at the 2001 business meeting. The deadline for returning the ballot is 1 July 2001. Members who have not already done so are encouraged to return the ballot by the deadline.
Director: Dieter Stein
Associate Director: Ellen Prince

The event will offer basic and advanced specialized credit courses on the model of the Summer Schools of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Sprachwissenschaft and the Linguistic Institutes of the LSA. There will be a range of special events on the state of the art in formal and functional lines of inquiry that have dominated general linguistics, as well as on the relevance of these two approaches to specialized disciplines like language acquisition, language change, and language contact.

An optional two-week program in German language and culture, focusing on the Rhinelands (the Düsseldorf and Cologne area) will be offered for foreign participants.

Student Fellowships

Student fellowships will be available on a competitive basis to LSA members who are undergraduate or graduate students and who have not completed their professional training. To be eligible for fellowship support, students must be LSA members and are expected to attend and participate in the full three weeks of activities.

Funding for fellowships is extremely limited. Awards are likely to be confined to tuition and some travel money only.

The application form is in this bulletin and is also available on the web at: http://www.lsadc.org. Completed application forms and requisite letters of recommendation must be at the LSA Secretariat no later than 11 February 2002.

Rap... at the 2001 Linguistic Institute
In the 1960's and 70's, rap sessions--times when people got together and discussed what was on their minds--were going on at college campuses all over the U.S. Sponsored by the LSA Committee on Ethnic Diversity in Linguistics, Institute rap sessions will provide the opportunity for Institute participants interested in issues relating to ethnic minorities to hang out and rap. Each session will have a moderator whose function will be to introduce the topic and keep the discussion going, but there will be no outside "experts" with the answers. Participants will share their views and hear other perspectives. After much give-and-take, they will possibly learn something that will help them or will make a contribution that is helpful to someone else. The sessions are open to all Institute participants; no prior registration is needed.

Job Opportunities

Johns Hopkins University. The Department of Cognitive Science is inviting applications for an untenured, tenure-track position in psychology. Appointment will be either at the assistant or associate professor level. The search will continue until the position is filled. Applicants must have a demonstrated record of achievements in experimental work on language bearing on theoretical issues in either phonology, morphology, or syntax. Teaching experience at both undergraduate and graduate levels is desirable. Besides theoretical linguistics and cognitive psychology, expertise in other areas of cognitive science is a further asset, especially in neuropsychology, neuroscience, or computer science. Please send a CV and sample publications to: Psycholinguistics Search Committee, Dept. Cognitive Science, Krieger Hall, Johns Hopkins University, 3400 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21218-2685. Please do not send letters of reference at this point. The Johns Hopkins University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer. Women and members of under-represented minorities are especially encouraged to apply.

Macalester College. The Linguistics program is seeking a sociolinguist who can also teach field methods for a one-semester sessional appointment February - May 2002. The third course will be determined in part by the interests of the successful candidate. Salary, although scandalously low, is competitive for appointments of this type, and we will do our best to get the maximum possible commitment from a pragmatic and unsentimental administration. Bearing in mind that Macalester College is a liberal arts undergraduate institution, a flair for teaching is a must. Candidates should send CV, three letters of reference, syllabi and teaching evaluations, and representative publications, if available, to: Linguistics Search Committee, Macalester College, St. Paul, MN 55105. Review of applications will begin at once and continue until the position is filled. Macalester is an AA/EO employer.

National University of Singapore. NUS invites applications for faculty positions in Chinese language and linguistics in the Department of Chinese Studies. We seek specialists in Classical and/or Modern Chinese with a strong commitment to both teaching and research. Applicants must possess a doctorate degree upon appointment. Successful candidates will be appointed as assistant professors or equivalent grades. They are expected to teach courses, conduct research, and supervise MA/PhD students. They will teach undergraduate and graduate students, who have had about 12 years of formal Chinese learning in school, Chinese language and linguistics. The ability to teach in English is an added advantage. The appointment commences on 1 January 2002. Please send completed application form, CV, detailed statement of research and teaching interests, representative publications (ideally one in Chinese and one in English) to: Prof. Wong Yoon Wah, Head, Dept. Chinese Studies, National University of Singapore, Level 3, Shaw Foundation Bldg., 5 Arts Link, Singapore 117570; fax: 65-779-4167; chsholg@nus.edu.sg. Visit our website at http://www.nus.edu.sg/NUSinfo/Appoint/arts-chs.htm for links to information on the department, the university, and the application form. Closing date for application: 30 June 2001. Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.

University of Ottawa. A postdoctoral position in variationist sociolinguistics is available to participate in ongoing projects on synchronic and diachronic variation in English and French, as well as on bilingualism and language contact in a variety of language pairs. The successful candidate will collaborate with a dynamic team of researchers at the University of Ottawa Sociolinguistics Laboratory. For further information, see: http://aix1.uottawa.ca/~sociolox. The position is initially funded for one year but is renewable. Annual salary is ca. CAD 35,000. Application consists of a CV, sample reprints and/or preprints, a statement of research and training interests, and letters of reference from at least three referees. Consideration of applications will begin as soon as they are complete and continue until the position is filled. Starting date negotiable, but fall 2001 preferred. Send materials and address informal inquiries to: Shana Poplack, Director, Sociolinguistics Lab, University of Ottawa, 70 Laurier East, Ottawa, ON, Canada K1N 6N5; spoiplack@aix1.uottawa.ca. The University of Ottawa is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage applications from women and from minorities.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE 2001 GUIDELINES AND ABSTRACT SPECIFICATIONS

The deadline for receipt is 1 September 2001 at 5:00 PM EDT. (Since that is Labor Day weekend, submissions will be accepted until Tuesday, 4 September, at 5:00 EDT.) Post office delivery is erratic. When mailing abstracts, allow sufficient time for delivery delays; priority mail service often takes more than two days. All abstracts must arrive by the deadline. Late abstracts will not be considered, whatever the reason for the delay.

The four categories of presentations are: organized sessions, 30-minute papers, 15-minute papers, and poster sessions. Abstracts of poster presentations, papers and descriptions of organized sessions will be reviewed with the most stringent criteria being applied to the longer presentations. The Program Committee will, of course, require that the subject matter be linguistic, that the papers not be submitted with malicious or scurrilous intent, and that the abstract be coherent and in accord with published specifications.

There is no upper limit on the number of papers that can be accepted for the program nor an upper limit on the number of papers in any subarea. There is, therefore, no predetermined limit on the number of sessions scheduled. When the Program Committee meets, members discuss and judge each abstract on the basis of their collective knowledge and, when appropriate, on reports from consultants. Then, they arrange each session, assemble the final program, and select session chairs.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1. All authors must be members of the Linguistic Society. Although LSA membership is on a calendar year basis, payment for 2001 may accompany the abstract; all in print issues of Language and the LSA Bulletin will be sent after payment is processed. The membership requirement may be waived for co-authors from other disciplines. Requests for waivers of membership must be made by a member of the Society and must accompany the abstract.

2. Any member may submit one 15-minute abstract, 30-minute abstract, or poster abstract as sole author and a second as co-author, or two as co-author. He or she may also submit one organized session proposal, but if this proposal is accepted, the Program Committee may withdraw the 15-minute, 30-minute, or poster proposal on the author's behalf.
Authors who will be unable to present their papers personally should specifically name a proxy who will both read the paper and respond to questions that follow.

After an abstract has been submitted, no changes of author, affiliation, title, or wording of the abstract, other than those due to typographical errors, are permitted.

Papers must be delivered as projected in the abstract or represent bona fide developments of the same research.

Handouts, if any, are not to be submitted with abstracts, but should be available at the meeting for those listening to the paper.

Submissions by electronic mail and/or facsimile cannot be accepted.

Presenters must register for the meeting.

ABSTRACT FORMAT GUIDELINES

An abstract, including a bibliography, if needed, and examples, must be no more than 500 words and on one side of a single page. Submit 12 copies. Abstracts longer than 500 words or more than one side of a single page will be rejected without being evaluated. Please note the word count at the bottom of the abstract.

At the top of the abstract, outside the typing area, put the title and designated research area(s).

Do not put your name on the abstract. Your name should be only on the abstract submittal form. If you identify yourself in any way on the abstract (e.g. "In Smith (1992)..."), it will be rejected without being evaluated.

Abstracts which do not conform to the format guidelines will not be considered. Abstracts not conforming to the content guidelines will be considered as reflecting the writer's ability to deliver an effective paper.

A short abstract, intended for photographic reproduction and publication in the Meeting Handbook, will be requested from all authors of accepted papers. Specific instructions for the transmittal of this abstract will be included in the acceptance letters. These instructions, including the stated deadlines, must be observed or the paper will be withdrawn from the program.

ABSTRACT CONTENTS

Many abstracts are rejected because they omit crucial information rather than because of errors in what they include. Authors may wish to consult the abstract models prepared by the Program Committee on pages 68-73 of the December 2000 LSA Bulletin. A suggested outline for abstracts is as follows:

Choose a title that clearly indicates the topic of the paper and is not more than one 7-inch typed line.

State the problem or research question raised by prior work, with specific reference to relevant prior research.

State the main point or argument of the proposed presentation.

Regardless of the subfield, cite sufficient data, and explain why and how they support the main point or argument. When examples are in languages other than English, provide word by word glosses and underline the portions of the examples which are critical to the argument. Explain abbreviations at their first occurrence.

If your paper presents the results of experiments, but collection of results is not yet complete, then report what results you’ve already obtained in sufficient detail that your abstract may be evaluated. Also indicate explicitly the nature of the experimental design and the specific hypothesis tested.

State the relevance of your ideas to past work or to the future development of the field. Describe analyses in as much detail as possible. Avoid saying in effect “a solution to this problem will be presented.” If you are taking a stand on a controversial issue, summarize the arguments that lead you to your position.

State the contribution to linguistic research made by the analysis.

While citation in the text of the relevant literature is essential, a separate list of references at the end of the abstract is generally unnecessary.

CATEGORIES OF PRESENTATIONS

Members submitting abstracts of poster presentations, 15-minute, and 30-minute papers should follow the instructions for abstract format and content carefully. Submissions in these three categories will be reviewed anonymously.

A. Poster Sessions

Depending on subject and/or content, it may be more appropriate to submit an abstract to the poster session for visual presentation rather than to the 15- or 30-minute session. In general, the sorts of papers which are most effective as posters are those in which the major conclusions become evident from the thoughtful examination of charts and graphs, rather than those which require the audience to follow a sustained chain of verbal argumentation. Therefore, authors will want to make points in narrative form as brief as possible. The poster paper is able to “stand alone,” that is, be understandable even if the author is not present, and does not require audiovisual support.

B. 15-Minute Papers

The bulk of the program will consist of 15-minute papers, with 5 minutes for discussion.

C. 30-Minute Papers

30-minute papers with 10-minutes of discussion are papers addressing issues whose presentation justifies additional time. These abstracts are evaluated more stringently than 15-minute and poster abstracts.

D. Organized Sessions

Organized sessions typically involve more than one scholar and are expected to make a distinctive and creative contribution to the meeting. Proposals for organized sessions are NOT reviewed anonymously. These sessions may be:
The organizer(s) must supply the information requested on the organized session submittal form, which is available from the LSA Secretariat. In addition, the organizer(s) must submit the following:

1. A preliminary version of the proposal including 500-word abstracts for each presenter by 14 April 2001, to be sent to the Program Committee for comments and suggestions.
2. A fully detailed proposal (typically 2-5 pages) which includes the purpose, motivation, length (1 1/2 - 3 hours), and justification for the session; the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all participants, including discussants; and a complete account, including timetable, of what each participant will do. The Program Committee reserves the right to select participants and discussants.
4. If appropriate, a short abstract of each participant's presentation.
5. Transcripts of any other kind with a clear, specific, and coherent rationale.

Organizers must submit a first version of the written proposal by 14 April 2001 in order to receive comments and suggestions from the Program Committee. The deadline for the final version of written proposals is 1 September 2001.

Funding: The Program Committee does not have funds for organized sessions. If special funds are required, it is the responsibility of the organizer(s) to seek and obtain them. When submitting the proposal to the Program Committee, the organizer(s) should state whether or not special funds will be necessary. If so, include the source of the funds, with an indication of what alternatives will be pursued if special funds fail to materialize.

The deadline for receipt of abstracts for 15- and 30-minute papers, poster sessions, and the final version of organized session proposals is 1 September 2001 at 5:00 PM EDT. (Since that is Labor Day weekend, submissions will be accepted until Tuesday, 4 September, at 5:00 EDT.)

LSA Student Fellowship Application

Please read the following eligibility requirements and application procedures carefully before completing the application form.

- Fellowships are intended for LSA members who are undergraduate and graduate students. Individuals holding a PhD degree are not eligible for student fellowships. Students who will have completed their dissertation before the program will have lowest priority for fellowships.

- Fellowship awardees are expected to attend and participate in the full three weeks of activities.
- Information supplied on the application MUST be typewritten or printed in black ink.
- Applicants should keep in mind that careful consideration will be given by the committee to their applications; the statement of goals and letter of recommendation are especially important.

The following materials should be on file by 11 February 2002 (NOT postmarked 11 February 2002). NOTE: Post office delivery is erratic. Allow sufficient time for delivery delays; priority mail service often takes more than two days. All applications, letters, and supporting documentation must arrive by the deadline. Late materials will not be considered, whatever the reason for the delay. No email or fax materials will be accepted:

1. Completed Fellowship Application Form;
2. LSA membership dues if not already a member for 2002 ($25/US address; $35/non-US address);
3. Transcripts from the last two years of college or university work;
4. Two Letters of Recommendation from individuals familiar with your work. Letters are taken seriously and should be requested early. It is your responsibility to ensure that letters are sent on time; letters received via electronic mail or facsimile or after the deadline will not be accepted.
