Transportation

Airlines

For a number of years the Linguistic Society has designated a convention travel agency to arrange economical travel for members (at their request) who will be attending the Annual Meeting. Since the most economical airfares are now available online, the Society has not designated a specific agency for Annual Meeting travel.

Registration

Members are reminded that registration fees can be kept low only if everyone who attends the meeting is registered. All those presenting papers are required to register.

Advance Registration: Only members may register in advance. Members planning to attend may preregister when they renew their membership for 2003 or by sending the preregistration form or a photocopy with a check for registration by 2 December 2002. The Secretariat strongly urges you to preregister by 2 December but will, in any case, stop accepting preregistrations on 20 December. This step has been necessitated by the enormous flow of preregistrations received the last few days before the meeting. Preregistration fees for the 2003 Annual Meeting are:

- Regular Members: $70.00
- Student Members: $30.00
- Unemployed Members: $30.00

Click here for a printable Preregistration Form

All preregistrations received after 20 December will be returned following the meeting, and individuals will have to register at the meeting. Preregistrants may claim badges and handbooks at the registration desk in the meeting area of the hotel beginning late in the afternoon of 2 January. Requests for refunds of preregistration fees will not be honored. Registrants who are unable to attend the meeting will, however, be sent a Meeting Handbook in late January.

On-Site Registration: Registration will open at noon on 2 January and will be open all day 3 and 4 January. The registration fees for the 2003 Annual Meeting are:

- Regular: $85.00
- Students: $35.00
Unemployed Members: $35.00

Note: Fees may be paid with cash, check, or traveller's cheque. Credit card payments will NOT be accepted for on-site registration under any circumstances.

LSA Meeting Services

- Child Care: As in the past, members who notify the Secretariat that they plan to bring children to the meeting will receive a list of sitters recommended by the hotel and convention bureau as well as the names and addresses of the other members who expect to bring their children to Atlanta. In addition, at the recommendation of the Officers and Executive Committee, the Child Care Assistance Fund will provide a maximum $100.00 stipend to offset child care costs. Parents must meet the following requirements: (1) They are presenters on the LSA program. (2) The caregiver they secure is a graduate student or unemployed linguist. [This person will also receive a complimentary Annual Meeting registration.] (3) The caregiver has agreed to provide child care for no more than two children for 8-12 hours. (4) The parents notify the Secretariat of their plans no later than 1 November 2002.

- Job Placement: A Job Placement Center will be available as in the past. The fee for listing one or more jobs in the Job Openings List and/or for scheduling interviews is $125. Instructions for remitting the fee will be sent to department and program chairs in mid October. As in the past, interviewers and candidates are required to register for the meeting.

- Publishers' Exhibit: Details will appear in the October LSA Bulletin.

- Sign Interpreting Policy: Members who plan to attend the Atlanta meeting and need sign interpreting service must notify the Secretariat AND register for the meeting by 15 November 2002. The request for sign interpreting should include a list of the LSA sessions and/or papers they plan to attend. The Secretariat will then, with the assistance of the Local Arrangements Committee and the Registry of Interpreters, secure the services of appropriate interpreters. We have budgeted up to $1,200 per LSA member requesting sign interpreting. In addition, upon request, the LSA will arrange for sign interpreting services at the business meeting and presidential address. Finally, signed presentations will be interpreted if requested by 15 November 2002.
2003 Annual Meeting Call for Participation

The deadline for abstracts for all presentations at the Annual Meeting at the Hilton Atlanta and Towers Hotel, 2-5 January 2003, is 3 September 2002, 5:00 PM EDT. Submissions should be addressed to: LSA Secretariat, 1325 18th St, NW, Ste 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.

Members are advised that post office delivery, INCLUDING EXPRESS MAIL AND PRIORITY MAIL, is erratic. Abstracts received after the deadline will not be considered and will be returned to the authors. Strict enforcement of this deadline is necessary.

The privilege of offering papers for presentation at the LSA Annual Meeting is open to all members of the Society. Members may submit papers in three categories: (1) anonymously reviewed 15-minute papers, (2) anonymously reviewed 30-minute papers, and (3) anonymously reviewed poster sessions in any subarea. (The deadline for preliminary proposals for organized sessions has passed.) The guidelines and abstract specifications may be found with the submission form for 15- and 30-minute papers and poster sessions as inserts in this bulletin. The guidelines for abstract preparation must be rigorously adhered to for the abstracts to be considered by the Program Committee.

Meeting rooms will be equipped with one microphone, an overhead projector, and a screen. The cost of one additional piece of equipment such as a tape recorder or VCR (subject to availability) will be covered if the Program Committee determines that the equipment is integral to the presentation.

Authors of accepted papers must preregister by 15 October (the deadline for receipt of the short abstract for the Meeting Handbook) or the paper will be withdrawn.
Acknowledgements

With grateful thanks the Society acknowledges the following gifts received between 1 February and 1 May 2002. The contributions of members wishing to remain anonymous are also acknowledged with thanks. Other contributions were recorded earlier.

Slate of Candidates for 2003

At its January 2002 meeting, the Executive Committee nominated Sally McConnell-Ginet (Cornell U) to serve as Secretary-Treasurer and Brian Joseph (OH SU) to serve as Editor. The Nominating Committee (Beth Levin, chair; Joseph Aoun; Mary Beckman; Bill Davies; Jeanette Gundel; John Singler; and Walt Wolfram) submits the following slate of members to stand for election in August 2002: Vice President/President-Elect: Joan Bybee (U NM); for Executive Committee: Alice Harris (Vanderbilt U/U at Stony Brook-SUNY), Larry Hyman (UC-Berkeley), Maria Polinsky (UC-San Diego), and Gillian Sankoff (Penn).

If ten or more members separately and in writing nominate any additional personal members for any position by 1 August 2002, that name will be added to the mail ballots submitted to the members. Nominations should be sent to: Nominating Cte, LSA, 1325 18th St, NW, Ste 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.
Honorary Members

The LSA Committee on Honorary Members welcomes the names of foreign scholars of distinction in linguistic studies who are not resident in the United States and who might be recommended as honorary members. Nominations of women and of scholars from areas of the world not traditionally represented in this group would be particularly welcome. The Society’s constitution permits a maximum of 40 honorary members at any time. Suggestions should be sent to the committee chair: Barbara Partee, Dept Ling, Box 37130, U MA, Amherst, MA 01003-7130; partee@linguist.umass.edu.
Call for Nominations for Secretary-Treasurer of the Linguistic Society of America

The Secretary-Treasurer is the constitutionally designated chief fiscal officer of the Society. The responsibilities of the Secretary-Treasurer shall include keeping the records of the deliberations of the Society and the Executive Committee, presenting an annual report to the Society, which shall be published by the Society, supervising publications of the Society which are not the responsibility of the Editor, and such functions as may be assigned by the President and the Executive Committee. Although the Secretary-Treasurer is elected annually, the recent tradition has been to serve for five consecutive years.

During their term in office, all past Secretary-Treasurers have been faculty members in residence at their own universities. They have been able to continue to pursue research interests, to maintain faculty commitments, and to meet administrative responsibilities because the work of the Society is generally carried out by the Secretariat in Washington. The Secretariat, currently staffed by three employees, administers and manages the work of the Society under the direction of and in frequent communication with the Secretary-Treasurer.

Each year the Secretary-Treasurer receives a modest honorarium in recognition of service and is reimbursed for office supplies and the expense of a telephone at his or her university office, as well as for travel on LSA business.

The members of the Ad Hoc Secretary-Treasurer Search Committee (Elizabeth C. Traugott, chair) welcome applications and nominations from any member. The committee would also be pleased to respond to inquiries about the position and to supply detailed information on the responsibilities. The deadline for receipt of materials is 1 July 2002. All applications and nominations should be accompanied by a curriculum vitae and be sent to: Ad Hoc Secretary-Treasurer Search Committee, c/o LSA Secretariat, 1325 18th St., NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.
Congratulations

Dell Hymes (U VA) received an honorary degree from the University of Turin in May.

Osamu Fujimura (OH SU) was a plenary speaker at the June meeting of the Linguistic Society of Japan.

Susan Gal (U Chicago) is a 2002 Guggenheim Fellow.

Paul Newman (IN U) has been named University Professor.

Geoffrey Nunberg (Stanford U) will be a Stanford Humanities Center Fellow for the 2002-03 academic year.

Digital Linguistics Journal

A new peer-reviewed journal created exclusively in electronic form, Linguistic Discovery provides free access to empirical data, sound files, and video of the world's rarest languages. Conceived by LSA members Lindsay Whaley and Lenore Grenoble, this noncommercial journal is devoted to the world's endangered and least-studied languages. The journal invites researchers to submit sound and video clips to accompany their articles, thus offering readers the opportunity to hear languages about which they previously could only read. Articles are available in HTML text as well as in PDF format so that the text is searchable. The journal is scheduled to come out twice a year. In addition to scholarly articles and opinion pieces, Linguistic Discovery also will include downloadable curriculum materials for linguistics professors. The journal is online at: http://linguistic-discovery.dartmouth.edu/WebObjects/Linguistics.

Appreciation

John H. D'Arms President, American Council of Learned Societies

John H. D'Arms, president of ACLS since 1997, died 22 January 2002. He was also adjunct professor of history and classics at Columbia University. Prior to his appointment at ACLS, he was professor of classical studies and professor of history at U MI (1972-97); chairman of the Department of Classical Studies (1972-77; 1980-85); dean of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies (1985-95), and Vice Provost for Academic Affairs (1990-95). 1977-80 he was director of the American Academy in Rome (a residential advanced study center chartered by the US Congress in 1911), and the A. W. Mellon professor in its School of Classical Studies.

Dr. D'Arms was a cogent spokesman for the humanities at the national level. He was a long-term member of the Board of Directors of the ACLS, trustee of the National Humanities Center (Research Triangle Park, NC), trustee emeritus of the American Academy in Rome, and a member of the national committee for Mellon fellowships in the humanities. President Clinton appointed him to the National Council for the Humanities in 1994, a position from which he resigned upon assuming the ACLS presidency. He had been a member of the Board of Directors of the NHA since 1997 and was elected a Fellow of the AAAS in 1992 and of the American Philosophical Society in 1998.

As an active member of the ACLS, the LSA benefited greatly from Dr. D'Arms' effective leadership, and the LSA Executive Committee has approved a small contribution to the ACLS in his memory.
The Leonard Bloomfield Book Award

The Linguistic Society of America solicits nominations for the Leonard Bloomfield Book Award. First presented in 1992, this biennial award recognizes especially distinguished contributions to our understanding of language and linguistics. The volume so honored will be selected on the basis of such criteria as originality, conceptual significance, empirical import, clarity of presentation, and likely impact on linguistic scholarship. The award is conferred in even-numbered years. A plaque will be presented to both the author and the publisher at the 2004 LSA Annual Meeting in Boston.

We welcome nominations of both specialist and more general books in any subfield of linguistics. In order to recognize the full diversity of the field of linguistics, the selection committee especially welcomes nominations of books in areas not recently represented among the Bloomfield winners. Edited volumes are not eligible for this award although jointly authored books are. Textbooks can be considered, but they are unlikely to meet the criteria for the award (though perhaps Bloomfield's Language might have). In order to be eligible, the author(s) must be member(s) of the Society, and the book must have been published in one of the two years immediately preceding the deadline for the receipt of entries (e.g. for the 2004 competition, books published after 28 February 2001 and before 1 March 2003 will be considered).

To be considered for the 2004 award, a nomination form and four copies of the books should be sent to: Leonard Bloomfield Book Award Committee, LSA Secretariat, 1325 18th Street, NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501. All materials must be received by the Secretariat no later than 1 March 2003.

The Book Award Committee consists of three scholars: a member of the Executive Committee, who usually serves as chair, and two members appointed by the LSA President. This committee will consider all the books submitted and may recommend one title to the Executive Committee who must formally approve the Award Committee's recommendation.

Off-Campus
All linguistics and no play makes Jack and Jill dull folk. You will find a great deal to do in mid- and southeastern Michigan. We will arrange a number of weekend excursions to Detroit (Institute of Art, Detroit Tigers), the Lake Michigan sand dunes, Saugatuck, Dearborn (Henry Ford Museum and Dearborn Village), and other historical, cultural, and entertainment centers. Sports enthusiasts can enjoy a minor league baseball team, the Lansing Lugnuts, in the new Oldsmobile Stadium, and sun and water lovers can sunbathe, swim, fish, and boat at Lake Lansing. Those who remember hamburgers and pizzas as the haute cuisine of the area's 1970s fare will be delighted to find that we now offer high- and lowbrow eateries of nearly every sort-Asian, Latin American, Middle Eastern, and more-and there are even eateries where "barbeque" and "grilling" are not synonymous. Music is not lacking: blues halls have multiplied considerably, but there are also venues for both longhairs and the differently coiffed, and Detroit is still a jazz-lover's paradise. Naturally, we'll provide you with annotated lists of dining and entertainment sites when you arrive. But even for those who take their entertainment solely from linguistics, we can promise some of the best Northern Cities Shifted Vowels you could ever hope to encounter.

2003 LSA Annual Meeting: Preregistration. Unemployed members may preregister or register on-site at the student rate.

Salary Survey. The results of this spring's salary survey are now available. Copies were sent to all department and program chairs in May and may be requested from the Secretariat as well.

Guidelines for Sign Language Interpreters. Guidelines have been prepared and will be sent to all departments and programs in August. They may be requested from the Secretariat for help in planning linguistics conferences, workshops, and other special events.

May 2002 Meeting of LSA Executive Committee

Although the highlights of the May 2002 meeting of the Officers and Executive Committee will be published in the October 2002 LSA Bulletin, the Committee thought it might be useful to alert members to several changes in fees and in procedures. The following brief report notes actions taken has been prepared.

1. After discussion of the possible uses of the withdrawal from the endowment approved in January 2002, the Finance Committee determined that the following projects should be recommended to the Executive Committee: the Video Archive Project, the web design project, and the 75-year Index of Language.

2. The use of funds contributed to the Membership Assistance Fund was amended to include not only unemployed linguists and scholars and institutions in countries with currency restrictions but linguists with special needs.

3. The Finance Committee unanimously approved the following procedures to be followed by Committees or individuals preparing grant proposals on behalf of the Linguistic Society:

"All grant proposals submitted on behalf of the Linguistic Society shall be forwarded to the LSA Secretariat, reviewed by Finance Committee, and signed by the Secretary-Treasurer. The final version of each proposal, including all the budget materials and everything else that is to accompany the application, must arrive at the Secretariat a minimum of two weeks before the proposal is due at the funding agency."

4. Dues payments from subscription agencies will be accepted only at the library and institutional rate. A mailing/handling fee of $15.00 for US members and $25.00 for members with non-US addresses will be assessed on all dues received after 1 March 2003.

5. Presenters of papers at the LSA Annual Meeting will be required to register for the meeting. Preregistration and payment should accompany the short abstract and will be due by 15 October. If the fees are not received by that time, the paper may be withdrawn from the program. For the 2003 Annual Meeting, a new fee schedule for registration was adopted [see p. 2 of this bulletin]. Emeritus members will continue to pay $60.00/$70.00 in fees.
