Ice skating

- The Depot
  225 3rd Avenue S
  Minneapolis, MN 55401
  612-330-2253

  The Depot is a popular ice skating venue, and offers student discounts on Thursdays.

  It's fun, it's romantic, and it's warm in the winter. Named one of the top places in North America to ice skate by Fodor's Travel, USA Today and MSNBC, The Depot Rink is an historic Downtown Minneapolis train shed that now houses a modern-day, indoor skating rink with floor-to-ceiling glass walls providing a great view of the city skyline.

- Parade Ice Garden
  600 Kenwood Parkway
  Minneapolis, MN 55403
  612-370-4846

  The Parade is next door to the Walker Art Center and Sculpture Garden.

  The Parade Ice Garden offers premier indoor ice skating to the public year round. Parade has three different ice rinks open to individuals of all ages, skills and interest levels: a 96’ x 56’ studio rink, and two full size rinks at 200’ x 85’ feet each. It features a large concession area, lockers and a comfortable location to change into skates.

  Located at the corner of 7th Street S and Nicollet Mall. Because Mary Tyler Moore!

- Mill City Museum
  704 S 2nd Street
  Minneapolis, MN 55401
  612-341-7555

  Built into the ruins of what was once the world’s largest flour mill, Mill City Museum is located on the historic Mississippi Riverfront. Here, visitors of all ages learn about the intertwined histories of the flour industry, the river, and the city of Minneapolis.

- Minneapolis Institute of Arts
  2400 Third Avenue S
  Minneapolis, MN 55404
  (888) MIA-ARTS

  The Minneapolis Institute of Arts and Children’s Theater Company are housed in the same building. Check out both while you are there.

  The Minneapolis Institute of Arts (MIA) inspires wonder, spurs creativity, and nourishes the imagination. With extraordinary exhibitions and one of the finest wide-ranging art collections in the country—Rembrandt to van Gogh, Monet to Matisse, Asian to African—the MIA links the past to the present, enables global conversations, and offers an exceptional setting for inspiration.
• Walker Art Center and Sculpture Garden
  1750 Hennepin Avenue
  Minneapolis, MN 55403
  612-375-7600
  http://www.walkerart.org/

The Walker Art Center is the premier modern art museum in Minnesota and is also the creative force behind the Internet Cat Video Film Festival. The Walker is free on the first Saturday of each month. The theme for First Free Saturday on January 5th is “From Morocco to the Moon.”

The Walker Art Center is a catalyst for the creative expression of artists and the active engagement of audiences. Focusing on the visual, performing, and media arts of our time, the Walker takes a global, multidisciplinary, and diverse approach to the creation, presentation, interpretation, collection, and preservation of art. Walker programs examine the questions that shape and inspire us as individuals, cultures, and communities.

• Weisman Art Museum
  333 E River Parkway
  Minneapolis, MN 55455
  612-625-9494
  http://www.weisman.umn.edu/

Housed in a striking stainless steel and brick building designed by architect Frank Gehry, the Weisman Art Museum offers an educational and friendly museum experience. The museum’s collection features early twentieth-century American artists, such as Georgia O’Keeffe and Marsden Hartley, as well as a diverse selection of ceramics and contemporary art. A teaching museum for the University of Minnesota and the community, the Weisman provides a fresh, engaging arts experience through an array of programs and a changing schedule of exhibitions. There’s always something interesting to see and do at WAM.

Music venues

• Dakota Jazz Club
  1010 Nicollet Mall
  Minneapolis, MN 55403
  612-332-1010
  http://www.dakotacooks.com/

The Dakota is a rare gem in the Minneapolis entertainment scene. One of few establishments to serve a full, chef-driven menu paired with world-class music performances seven nights a week, the Dakota is more than a restaurant and more than a music club; it’s where love of great food and great music come together as a seamless duet.
San Francisco has the Fillmore Auditorium. New York has the Knitting Factory. Minneapolis has First Avenue and the 7th St Entry. Anyone who knows about music in this town will tell you that, for the last four decades, First Avenue has been integral to the Twin Cities' vibrant music scene.

The Fine Line Music Café is located in the heart of the Warehouse District in downtown Minneapolis. The club is in the main level of the Consortium building, which was built in 1907 and is considered a historic site. The Fine Line Music Café celebrated its Grand Opening in November of 1987. Ruth Whitney was the original owner and worked for two years developing her vision of a first-class nightclub. Whitney envisioned a club that could present top quality local and national musical acts seven nights a week. She created the club with two tiered cabaret style seating, which she found to be the best way to enhance the musical experience.

  St. Paul, MN 55102
  651-297-2555
  http://sites.mnhs.org/historic-sites/james-j-hill-house
  The Hill House is right across the street from the Cathedral of St. Paul, and just down the road from the History Center and the State Capitol.
Rugged stone, massive scale, fine detail and ingenious mechanical systems recall the powerful presence of James J. Hill, builder of the Great Northern Railway. Guides lead tours that help you imagine family and servant life in the Gilded Age mansion, the setting of the public and private lives of the Hill family. The James J. Hill House is a National Historic Landmark.

- Minnesota Children’s Museum
  10 West Seventh Street
  St. Paul, MN 55102
  651-225-6000

  The Children’s Museum is in the heart of downtown St. Paul. This would be a fun visit to combine with ice skating at Rice Park.

  For more than 30 years, Minnesota Children's Museum has embedded the research on play, creativity and child development into its interactive learning environments and programs. Open-ended experiences are designed for children to explore, discover, immerse, imagine and connect.

- Minnesota History Center

  The Ordway is across the street from Rice Park. A visit would be fun to combine with ice skating. During the conference, Broadway Songbook: George Gershwin will be playing.

  The Ordway, recognized as one of the U.S.’s leading not-for-profit performing arts centers, is home to a wide variety of performances throughout the year that encompass the finest in American musical theater, world music, dance, and vocal artists on its Music Theater stage.

- Rice Park
  St. Paul, MN 55102
  612-749-0435

  If you find yourself in downtown St. Paul, ice skating at Rice Park is a must. The park is across the street from the historic Landmark Center and the Ordway. It is free to skate, and skate rental is only $2. On January 5th, there will be Downton on Ice. Dress in period-style clothing and watch the season premier of Downton Abbey on a large jumbotron overlooking the rink.

- Science Museum of Minnesota
  120 W. Kellogg Boulevard
  St. Paul, MN 55102
  651-221-9444

  The Science Museum is full of hands-on exhibits and also features an Imax theater. During the conference, there will be a special exhibit and Imax film about the Maya. The exhibit has lots of neat language displays. There may also be a Social Science event, which is a monthly 21+ after hours event that offers drinks and special programming for adults. Keep an eye out for the 2014 schedule to be released soon. Consider pairing a visit to the Science Museum with ice skating at Rice Park.

  The Science Museum's 70,000 square feet of exhibition space includes a 10,000-square-foot temporary exhibit gallery and five permanent galleries covering the topics of paleontology, physical science and technology, the human body, peoples and cultures of the Mississippi River, and the museum's collections. The Mississippi River flows just outside the windows of the museum and past the museum's ten acres of outdoor exhibits and programming space.

- State Capitol
  75 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard
  St. Paul, MN 55155
  651-296-3962
  http://sites.mnhs.org/historic-sites/minnesota-state-capitol

The Minnesota state capitol offers free tours daily. If guided tours aren’t your thing, there are also self-guided tour options in 20+ languages. Consider combining a visit to the Capitol with a visit to the Minnesota Historical Society.

Designed by Cass Gilbert, the Minnesota State Capitol is considered an architectural masterpiece. Visitors can explore the House, Senate and Supreme Court chambers, see the legislature in action, visit the gold-leafed Quadriga on the roof when weather allows, stop in the restored Rathskeller Café and walk the Capitol Mall.

- Subtext
  165 Western Avenue N
  St. Paul, MN 55104
  651-493-3871

Subtext is a wonderful independent bookstore below Nina’s Coffee Cafe. Nina’s (ɲənə) is named for St. Paul’s most famous madame, whose brothel was located where the Science Museum is now. You are welcome to take your coffee downstairs and sit in the bookstore. The bookstore and coffee shop are two blocks down Selby Avenue from the Cathedral and the JJ Hill House.
