LSA Update
News from the
Linguistic Society of America
Update № 223 — January 17, 2022

LSA Seeks Applications for Meetings Manager

The LSA is now accepting applications (through January 31, 2022) for a part-time management position focused on planning our meetings and other events. An overview of the position's responsibilities is outlined below, along with details for submitting an application. The anticipated start dates are flexible, with a goal of filling the position by the end of February 2022.

A complete description of the position's responsibilities, requirements, and ideal characteristics can be found on the LSA website.

Applicants are requested to send a cover letter, resume, salary requirements, and contact information for at least three professional references to lsa@lsadc.org, using this subject line: Application for LSA Meetings Manager Position. Deadline: January 31, 2022.

January Webinar: Gender Bias and Stereotypes in Linguistics Research and Teaching

The LSA January 2022 webinar will be held on Friday, January 28th, between 12 p.m. and 1:30 p.m., U.S. EST. The webinar is a “Meet the Authors” program entitled “Gender Bias & Stereotypes in Linguistics Research and Teaching.” will hear from authors of two papers featured in the December 2021 issue of Language: “Gender bias in linguistics textbooks” (Authors: Paola Cépeda, Hadas Kotek, Katharina Pabst, Kristen Syrett) and “Gender bias and stereotypes in linguistic example sentences” (Authors: Hadas Kotek, Rikker Dockum, Sarah Babinski, Christopher Geissler). We will conclude with time for a Q & A.

You can read the papers online and sign up for the webinar via GoToWebinar. If you have any questions for the panelists that you would like to submit in advance, or any other questions about the program, email membership@lsadc.org.

---

CoLang Call for Fellowship & Scholarship Applications

The LSA is pleased to partner with the Institute on Collaborative Language Research (CoLang) to provide financial support to a number of scholars to attend the Institute. Specifically, the LSA offers the Emmon Bach Fellowship and the CoLang Scholarships. Student members of the LSA are welcome to submit an application.

- The Emmon Bach Fellowship is a named fellowship awarded to one student that covers travel, lodging, and a meal plan during the workshops and practica at CoLang 2022. Applicants for this fellowship will also be considered for the CoLang Scholarship. The person awarded this fellowship is expected to attend the full duration CoLang 2022 (June 13-July 8 - the full two weeks of workshops, and full two weeks of a practicum).
- The CoLang Scholarship award is available to fund several students' participation. The award will cover partial CoLang expenses such as registration (registration includes tuition), lodging, or meal plan for the two weeks of workshops (June 13-June 24) at CoLang 2022.

Deadline

Scholarship/fellowship applications are due Friday, February 11, 2022 (11:59pm MST). Notifications will be sent out in mid-March. Registration for CoLang 2022 must be completed by March 31, 2022.

---

Intern Transitions

All good things come to an end, and so it is with our time with LSA Intern Brody Silva. We are so grateful for all the work Brody has done for us and especially for staying with us through the Annual Meeting and providing much-needed support and assistance to those proceedings. Best of luck, Brody, in your future endeavors!

While we will miss Brody, we are excited to welcome Nicky Macias as our Spring 2022 intern! Nicky is an ASL/English Interpreter and Emerging Linguistics Researcher. A graduate of the University of South Florida, Nicky is pursuing a Master's degree in Linguistics at Gallaudet University in the District of Columbia, where they are also working as a graduate assistant. We are glad to have Nicky with us and to welcome them to the LSA team!

Language News

Third Call for Language Co-Editor Nominations

Language's editorial leadership team consists of an Editor and Co-Editor who serve together for three years. At the end of the three-year term, the Editor cycles off the editorial team, the Co-Editor becomes the Editor, and a new Co-Editor is elected. The term of the current Editor, Andries Coetzee, will end in December 2022, at which point the current Co-Editor, John Beavers, will assume the position of Editor. The current search is for a Co-Editor to serve alongside John Beavers, starting in January 2023.

Applicants are asked to supply a current CV (link or attachment), a concise summary of their qualifications and vision for the journal (2-4 pages), and the names and contact information for three references. Queries and applications should be directed in confidence to LSA Executive Director Alyson Reed at areed@lsadc.org with the words “Language Co-Editor Position” in the subject line. Applications should be submitted by January 31, 2022.

For complete information on job responsibilities and qualifications, read the announcement on our website.

In Case You Missed It ...

The Electronic Version of Language Is Available on Muse

The December issue of Language (Vol. 97, No. 4) is available to LSA digital and print subscribers on Project Muse. For more information on accessing this and other printed material online, visit the LSA's Language Online page.
Other LSA Resources

The LSA supports the scientific study of language by creating great venues for linguists from all subfields to congregate and discuss research, innovation, and learning. It is a community of scholars and professionals who have a deep respect for the importance of an interdisciplinary community of peers.

- LSA Listings
  - Job Listings
  - Conference Announcements,
  - Grant Opportunities,
  - In Memoriam Notices, and
  - Other news items of interest.
  - Submit a conference listing or contact the LSA with news or other information.

- Support the LSA
  - LSA members can cause a portion of any purchase they make on Amazon.com to be donated to the LSA. Learn more, or make a tax-deductible donation.

- Update Your Member Profile
  - Complete your member profile to be entered in a prize drawing.

- Stay Informed about Language
  - Subscribe to RSS Feeds for the latest issue and the Table of Contents of Language

- Student Members
  - LSA Student Members can submit their research to the Student Research Spotlight.

- Visit the LSA website for information on other LSA resources, including:
  - Taking Linguistics to the Public: An Outreach Guide
  - Linguistic Academic Depository
  - LSA Jobs Center