Andries Coetzee Nominated as Next Editor of Language

Andries Coetzee (University of Michigan) has been chosen by a search committee and approved by the LSA Executive Committee to stand for election for a seven-year term as the next Editor of our flagship journal, Language. His nomination is subject to confirmation by a vote of the LSA membership later this Fall. If elected, Coetzee will become the eighth Editor of Language, succeeding Greg Carlson, who will conclude his service at the end of this year. Read more ...
