

LSA Open Access Initiatives*

Language Online

- All articles freely available after one year.
- Selected articles available freely on an immediate basis with author payment of article processing charge ($400). A fee waiver is available.
- All authors are expected to be LSA members at the time of publication.
- One article in each issue is “unlocked” as part of our outreach to science journalists.
- Free and discounted memberships available to scholars in developing countries or experiencing economic hardship.
- Free access to selected back content (1925-2014) on JSTOR via its “Register and Read” program.
- OA supported by LSA membership dues, library subscription fees, royalties from Project MUSE, and contributions to the LSA’s OA Publications Fund.
