Super good live guitarist Friday and Saturdays. Cafeteria style. No dinner.

Sausages and gourmet hot dogs.

Austin classic. Regional and funky. Open 24/8.

Austin classic. Regional food. Happy hour here is the best; so is brunch. Brunch is all you can eat. Make reservations or get there early.

They serve absinthe. Amazing cocktails and the best mussels I've ever had. Ambience: rebellious, dark.

Brunch! Carrot cake French toast, migas, brie, veggie omelet. Great lunch/dinner too!

Small plates. Good date place. "Dinner and a movie" is my favorite dessert of all time.

Austin classic. Unique, inventive, fancy BBQ. Also very delicious.

One of my top 3 favorite burgers in town, solid breakfast too. No dinner.

Best. Burgers. Ever. Try their caramel sea salt milkshake. Their veggie burger is made out of sesame, not black beans, and that makes it 100x better. Try their "sassy sauce" and The Continental add egg. Ambience: urban.

Crepes. No dinner.

Great wine selection. Make reservations as seating is limited.

Really good for Austin Italian food...everything I've had here has been on point. Ambience: elegant.

Funky (some tables are arcade games). Amazing pizzas and a cool atmosphere.

I <3 brunch. Really good happy hour, but it's only at the bar.

God's fried chicken. The original Gus's is a Tennessee staple and this franchise lives up to that legacy. Listen to me when I tell you that you need to go eat this fried chicken as soon as possible.

Best Fried Chicken Ever. A lot of other great fried food and drinks for a very good price. First place I tried mountain oysters if you know what those are.

Austin institution. Janis Joplin performed at the original. Gospel brunch.

The tuna razor appetizer is delicious if you like fresh sashimi and spicy things. The River Walk Roll and Rainbow Roll never disappoint. Great happy hour prices.

Uchi
801 S. Lamar

New Austin classic. In a word, incomparable, eat here and die happy. Happy hour on weekdays is more affordable. Make reservations in advance. Short taxi ride, but worth it. Ambience: modern.

Health food. Seriously awesome for breakfast. Their bowls are basically like smoothies with added ingredients. The typa food that makes you feel good about yourself while indulging at the same time.

Cru
238 W. 2nd
$$
Delicious mussels. $7 bottomless mimosas for brunch on Sundays. Great cheese platters.

Mai Thai
207 San Jacinto

BEST yellow curry I’ve ever had.

Parkside
301 E. 6th Street

Great quail. Even better oysters.

Sway
1417 S. 1st

Really good place for many occasions. Lunch with co-workers or colleagues or even a nice but not too fancy date place. It has some family style elements, basically good for sharing with groups, but you can get individual meals too.

Walton's Fancy & Staple
609 W. 6th
$
Best steel cut oatmeal EVER. The chocolate croissant and French toast challah are fantastic.
